

The Critical Criminologist

Division on Critical Criminology, American Society of Criminology
Newsletter 21:2, Fall 2012

In this edition:

From the Chair	1
From the Editors	1
ASC Session of Interest	2
Critical Announcements	5
Critical Scholarship.....	7
Critical Calls.....	8
Positions.....	12

From the Chair

Hello Crit Crim!

As we are quickly approaching the ASC conference, I thought that I would remind you of some changes in the schedule. Please note that all DCC meetings, including the social, will be held on Thursday this year. The awards presentation will also take place during the social and will begin at 6:00pm on Thursday. We were asked to make these changes in order to avoid overlap with other Friday events. If you have not already done so, please remember to sign up for a shift at our DCC table. Don't forget to bring your promotional materials, information about programs, pamphlets, and examples of scholarly work to be distributed. Also, please note that the transition to our new editorial team at Critical Criminology: An International Journal will be complete by January 2013. Looking forward to seeing you in Chicago!

Peace,
Donna Selman, PhD

From the Editors

Fellow Critical Criminologists,

We hope the new academic semester has treated you all well. We are looking forward to seeing everyone at the ASC meeting. There are numerous sessions sponsored by the division this year. These and other information about division events, recent scholarship, upcoming conferences, and employment opportunities are available here.

Thanks again for reading!
Emily, Kate, and Travis

ASC Sessions of Interest

DIVISION MEETINGS, EVENTS, & SESSIONS OF INTEREST

Wednesday, November 14

8:00-9:20am	Advancing Media Scholarship: Theory, Measurement, and the Role of Crime Experts	Clark 9	7 th Floor
9:30-10:50am	Convict Criminology: Perspectives on the Prison Experience	Clark 9	7 th Floor
11:00am-12:20pm	A Critical Analysis of Criminological Theory	Clark 10	7 th Floor
11:00am-12:20pm	High Profile Events: Media Coverage and Implications	Clark 3	7 th Floor
11:00am-12:20pm	State Crime Victimology I	Dearborn 1	7 th Floor
12:30-1:50pm	State Crime Victimology II	Dearborn 1	7 th Floor
12:30-1:50pm	Constructing Social Problems: School Crime, Ecstasy Deaths, and Terrorism	Clark 8	7 th Floor
2:00-3:20pm	Convict Criminology: Poetry and Photographs Reflecting on Mass Incarceration	Clark 9	7 th Floor
3:30-4:50pm	Crime and Identity	Cresthill Room	3 rd Floor
3:30-4:50pm	Media Presentations of Subterranean Cultural Groups	LaSalle 2	7 th Floor
3:30-4:50pm	Tearing Down the Streets: Ten Years On	Burnham 4	7 th Floor
5:00-6:20pm	Cultural Criminology on the Rural	Cresthill Room	3 rd Floor
5:00-6:20pm	Criminological Theory: Cultural and Critical Perspectives	Sandburg 4	7 th Floor

Thursday, November 15

9:30-10:50am	The Ethnography of Punishment: Exploring Residual and Emergent Elements of Contemporary Penal Interventions	Clark 10	7 th Floor
11:00am-12:20pm	6 th Annual Workshop on State Crime	Hancock Parlor	6 th Floor
12:30-1:50pm	Feminist Theory and Pedagogy	Water Tower Parlor	6 th Floor
2:00-3:20pm	Teaching Critical Criminology: Fostering Critical Thinking	Sandburg 4	7 th Floor
2:00-3:20pm	Cyborgs and Avatars and Monsters (Oh My!): Criminal Conversations with Feminist Science and Technology Studies	Cresthill Room	3 rd Floor
3:30-4:20pm	DCC Executive Meeting	Adams Room	6th Floor
4:30-5:50pm	DCC General Business Meeting	Adams Room	6th Floor
6:00-10:00pm	DCC Social	Adams Room	6th Floor

DIVISION MEETINGS, EVENTS, & SESSIONS OF INTEREST (continued)

Friday, November 16

8:00-9:20am	New Research in Cultural Criminology	Kimball Room	3 rd Floor
9:30-10:50am	Intimate Partner Violence	Buckingham Room	5 th Floor
9:30-10:50am	Media, Crime and Social Justice	Clark 9	7 th Floor
11:00am – 12:20pm	DCC Journal Editorial Board Meeting	Hancock Parlor	6th Floor
12:30-1:50pm	Marital Status and Victimization	Buckingham Room	5 th Floor
2:00-3:20pm	Criminologists Without Borders	Adams Room	6 th Floor
2:00-3:20pm	Occupy Criminology	Clark 9	7 th Floor
2:00-3:20pm	Division on Critical Criminology Journal Editorial Board Meeting	Hancock Parlor	6 th Floor
2:00-3:20pm	Critical Perspectives on Justice	Millennium Parlor	6 th Floor
3:30-4:50pm	Routledge Handbook of Critical Criminology	Clark 5	7 th Floor
3:30-4:50pm	Zombie Criminology: Can a Nation- Centric Discipline Survive a Globalized World Context?	Clark 9	7 th Floor
3:30-4:50pm	Motorcycle Outlaws? Biker Identities, Narratives and Consumption	Cresthill Room	3 rd Floor
3:30-4:50pm	Critical Explorations in Contemporary Penalty	Dearborn 2	7 th Floor
3:30-4:50pm	Routledge Handbook of Critical Criminology (Organized by the DCC)	Clark 5	7th Floor
7:00-9:00pm	Doctorate in Cultural and Global Criminology (the DCGC, a European consortium led by the University of Kent)	Cresthill Room	3 rd Floor

DIVISION MEETINGS, EVENTS, & SESSIONS OF INTEREST (continued)

Saturday, November 17

8:30-9:50am	The Future of Capital Punishment in the United States	Burnham 4	7 th Floor
8:30-9:50am	Author Meets Critics: The Future of Batterer Programs: Reassessing Evidence-Based Practice	Chicago Room	5 th Floor
8:30-9:50am	Historical Trends in Punishment and Rehabilitation	Clark 10	7 th Floor
8:30-9:50am	Prison Issues and Culture in Media and Social Debate	Clark 9	7 th Floor
8:30-9:50am	Ontological Criminology	Cresthill Room	3 rd Floor
8:30-9:50am	Cultural Criminology: New Directions	Millennium Parlor	6 th Floor
8:30-9:50am	Author Meets Critics: Life After Death Row: Exonerees' Search for Community and Identity	Spire Parlor	6 th Floor
8:30-9:50am	Surviving Prison: Quantitative and Qualitative Approaches	Dearborn 2	7 th Floor
10:00-11:20am	Mafia Investments	Clark 10	7 th Floor
10:00-11:20am	Trafficking in Art and Antiquities	Clark 9	7 th Floor
10:00-11:20am	Environmental Criminology	Cresthill Room	3 rd Floor
10:00-11:20am	The Politics of Punishment and Correction	Dearborn 2	7 th Floor
10:00-11:20am	Understanding Subculture	Kimball Room	3 rd Floor
10:00-11:20am	Youth (In)justice: Reports from the Front	LaSalle 5	7 th Floor
10:00-11:20am	Women and Violence: Exploring Context and Typologies	Madison Room	3 rd Floor
10:00-11:20am	United Nations Panel: Criminology at the UN	Sandburg 2	7 th Floor
10:00-11:20am	Teaching Critical Criminology: Teaching Specific Content Areas Critically	Sandburg 4	7 th Floor
10:00-11:20am	Teaching Sensitive Topics: Intimate Partner Abuse, Rape, and Victim Blaming	Sandburg 5	7 th Floor
10:00-11:20am	The Gains and Challenges of Penal Abolition: A Roundtable Discussion	Sandburg 7	7 th Floor
10:00-11:20am	Transformations in Punishment and Society	Wilson Room	3 rd Floor
10:00-11:20am	The Gendering of Offending	Spire Parlor	6 th Floor
10:00-11:20am	The Black Child-Savers: Racial Democracy and Juvenile Justice	Water Tower Parlor	6 th Floor

DIVISION MEETINGS, EVENTS, & SESSIONS OF INTEREST (continued)

Roundtables: Teaching Critical Criminology

In order to foster an ongoing conversation about how we teach critical criminology in the classroom, there will be two (2) “Teaching Critical Criminology” roundtables this year.

Title: Teaching Critical Criminology: Fostering Critical Thinking

Date/Location: Thursday, November 15, 2:00-3:20pm (Sandburg 4, 7th Floor)

Presentations: 1) Teaching Critical Thinking Skills

2) “You Don’t Have to Agree to Understand”: Creating an Open Classroom Environment Conducive to Critical Inquiry

3) Developing Critical Thinking: Using Memo Work with Current New Items

4) Engaged Pedagogy: Teaching Through Action Research Teams

Title: Teaching Critical Criminology: Teaching Specific Content Areas Critically

Date/Location: Saturday, November 17, 10:00-11:20am (Sandburg 4, 7th Floor)

Presentations: 1) Teaching Elite Crime Critically

2) Teaching Occupy

3) Teaching Policing Critically: Beyond the Cop Shop

4) Teaching Juvenile Delinquency Critically

Critical Announcements

GENERAL

Walter DeKeseredy and Molly Dragiewicz are co-editing a critical criminological anthology for Routledge's book series titled Critical Concepts in Criminology. It will include 80-100 previously published articles and book chapters. It is designed to include the "greatest hits" of critical criminology. Please send any suggestions to Walter and Molly at walter.dekeseredy@uoit.ca and molly.dragiewicz@uoit.ca

Contemporary Justice Review is calling for innovative papers on “Critical White Studies in Crime & Justice” for a special topics issue of the journal. Interested authors should send abstracts/manuscripts/questions to Special Topics Issue co-editors: Justin Smith (smith61j@cmich.edu) and Travis Linnemann (tlinnema@odu.edu) by January 10, 2013.

Authors whose work has been selected will be notified by February 1, 2013. Complete manuscripts will be due by August 1, 2013 for inclusion in the special issue of the journal. Queries about the appropriateness of specific topics should be directed to the guest editors, Justin Smith or Travis Linnemann, or Dan Okada (dokada@csus.edu) Editor-in-Chief of Contemporary Justice Review.

NEW EDITORS OF CRITICAL CRIMINOLOGY: AN INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL

David Kauzlarich, Professor of Sociology and Criminal Justice Studies at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, will become Editor in Chief of Critical Criminology: An International Journal beginning January 2013. Professor Kauzlarich has been active as a critical criminologist in numerous capacities, including various administrative positions within the American Society of Criminology's Division of Critical Criminology and as a widely published author in the field. His published work spans from state crime, state-corporate crime, and victimology, to ethnomusicology, peace studies, and criminological theory. He has received numerous awards for his work including the Critical Criminologist of the Year, the Paul Simon Outstanding Teacher-Scholar Award, the William and Margaret Going Endowed Professor Award, and Great Teacher Award.

Professor Kerry Carrington is the Head of the School of Justice in the Law Faculty at QUT and Vice Chair of the Division of Critical Criminology, ASC. From 2013 she will take over as the Pacific Rim Editor of Critical Criminology. Kerry has a wide range of research interests that cut across critical criminology including gender and crime, rural crime, sexual violence, feminist criminology and the criminological impact of mining development. She was the Chief Investigator of an Australian Research Council Discovery Grant studying why men in rural and regional Australia have higher rates of mortality and morbidity for violent related harms. That research team led the accidental discovery that work camps established to meet the labor resource needs of a rapidly expanding resource extraction industry can have a variety of social and criminological impacts on existing rural communities. These results, published in leading world journals, won the 2012 Allen Austin Bartholomew Award presented annually by the Australian and New Zealand Society of Criminology.

Gregg Barak is Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice at Eastern Michigan University and the former Visiting Distinguished Professor in the College of Justice & Safety at Eastern Kentucky University. In 2003 he became the 27th Fellow of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences and in 2007, received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Critical Division of the American Society of Criminology. Barak was also the last EMU recipient of the Ronald Collins Distinguished Faculty Award for both Scholarly and Creative Activity, awarded in 2006. Barak is author and/or editor of numerous books on crime, justice, media, violence, criminal law, homelessness, human rights, and related topics. His latest books are Theft of a Nation: Wall Street Looting and Federal Regulatory Colluding, Class, Race, Gender, and Crime: The Social Realities of Justice in America (co-authored and in its third edition), and Criminology: An Integrated Approach. Effective January 2013, Professor Barak is the Book Review Editor for Critical Criminology.

Critical Scholarship

RECENT PUBLICATIONS

Dragiewicz, M., & DeKeseredy, W.S. (2012). Claims about women's use of non-fatal force in intimate relationships: A contextual review of the Canadian research. Violence Against Women.

Rennison, C.M., DeKeseredy, W.S., & Dragiewicz, M. (2012). Context matters: Violence against women and reporting to the police in rural, suburban, and urban areas. American Journal of Criminal Justice.

Rennison, C.M., DeKeseredy, W.S., & Dragiewicz, M. (2012). Urban, suburban, and rural variations in separation/divorce rape/sexual assault: Results from the national crime victimization survey. Feminist Criminology, 7, 282-297.

DeKeseredy, W.S. (in press). Pornography and violence against women. In C.A. Cuevas & C.M. Rennison (Eds.), The Wiley-Blackwell handbook on the psychology of violence. West Sussex, UK: Wiley-Blackwell.

DeKeseredy, W.S. (in press). Separation/divorce sexual assault. In L. McOrmond Plummer, P. Eastseal, & J.Y. Levy-Peck (Eds.), Intimate partner sexual violence: A multidisciplinary approach to survivor support and system change. London: Jessica Kingsley Publishers.

DeKeseredy, W.S., & Dragiewicz, M. (in press). Gaps in knowledge & emerging areas in gender and criminology. In C.M. Renzetti, S.L. Miller, & A. Gover (Eds.), Routledge international handbook of crime and gender studies. London: Routledge.

DeKeseredy, W.S., & Donnermeyer, J.F. (in press). Thinking critically about rural crime: Toward the Development of a New Left Realist Perspective. In S. Winlow & R. Atkinson (Eds.), New Directions in Crime and Deviance: Papers From the York Deviancy Conference 2011. London: Routledge.

DeKeseredy, W.S. (2012). The Myth that "Criminals" are Fundamentally Different From "Noncriminals." In R.M. Bohm and J. T. Walker (Eds.), Demystifying Crime and Criminal Justice. New York: Oxford University Press.

DeKeseredy, W.S. (in press). Understanding Woman Abuse in Canada: Past, Present and Future. In C. Karrington (Ed.), Crime, Justice and Social Justice Conference Proceedings. Basingstoke, UK: Palgrave Macmillan.

DeKeseredy, W.S. (in press). Patriarchy. Com: Adult Internet Pornography and the Abuse of Women. In C.M. Renzetti & R. Kennedy Bergen (Eds.), Understanding Diversity: Celebrating Difference, Challenging Inequality. Boston: Allyn & Bacon.

DeKeseredy, W.S. (2012). The Current Condition of Criminological Theory in North America. In S. Hall & S. Winlow (Eds.), New Directions in Criminological Theory (pp. 66-79). London: Routledge.

RECENT PUBLICATIONS (continued)

The Complexities of Police Corruption: Gender, Identity and Misconduct

by Marilyn Corsianos (Rowman and Littlefield, 2012)

Description of book: The Complexities of Police Corruption provides a comprehensive examination of the role of gender and hegemonic masculinity as it relates to police corruption, crime control, and policing as an institution. Author Marilyn Corsianos examines different forms of corruption, including some behaviors that are generally not recognized as corruption by police departments, such as selective law enforcement, racial profiling, gender bias and other discriminatory police practices against marginalized populations. The book also explores the role of police culture in preserving and defending misconduct and digs into the thorny question of why significantly fewer women are involved in police corruption.

About the Author: Marilyn Corsianos is professor of criminology and sociology at Eastern Michigan University. She is the author of Policing and Gendered Justice (University of Toronto Press, 2009), which was named a CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title, and the coeditor of Interrogating Social Justice. She has written numerous articles on policing, power and social inequalities.

Reviews: Too often, gendered study means looking at women. This path breaking work on police corruption incorporates insights from masculinities studies and cultural criminology to show that corruption is a gendered activity that is intertwined with hegemonic masculinity. Marilyn Corsianos adds immeasurably to the study of policing through her demonstration that police culture and the media shape police hypermasculinity. Her suggestions that the Community Policing Model can reduce both patriarchal influence and corruption are especially provocative.

— Martin D. Schwartz, George Washington University

Corsianos tackles police corruption and misconduct through a number of lenses, including the one that has been most necessary and ignored, the role of masculinity.

— Joanne Belknap, University of Colorado

Critical Calls

UPCOMING CONFERENCES

Critical Criminology & Justice Studies Conference

Date: Thursday, February 7, 2013; Berkeley, California

Working Theme: The Promise of Radical Works and Social Justice: Berkeley Politics in the 21st Century. The Department of Sociology, Criminology, & Justice Studies at California State University San Marcos, and the School of Public Affairs at San Diego State University will host a critical criminology & justice studies conference Thursday, February 7, 2013, in Berkeley, CA. This day-long event is the fifth in a conference series viewed as a grassroots effort to cultivate a critical criminology and justice studies collective in the western region of North America. The conference immediately precedes the opening reception for the Western Society of Criminology's annual meeting (February 7-9, 2013). We encourage participation in both conferences but please note that registration and submissions for the two conferences are independent processes. More information can be found at <http://westerncriminology.org>

UPCOMING CONFERENCES (continued)

The 2nd Crime, Justice and Social Democracy International Conference

Date: Queensland University of Technology - July 8-11, 2013

The School of Justice, Queensland University of Technology is pleased to announce the dates for the 2nd Crime, Justice and Social Democracy International Conference. The conference will take place from July 8-11, 2013 at the Garden Point campus in Brisbane.

We are also pleased to announcement the following Keynote Speakers for the conference:

Professor Loraine Gelsthorpe, University of Cambridge Emeritus

Professor Tony Jefferson, Keele University

Professor Walter S. DeKeseredy, University of Ontario

Additional international speakers will be announced later in 2012. The First Call for Paper Submissions has a closing date of 22 February 2013. A second call for papers will be announced early in 2013. If you require further information at this time please visit the conference website at www.crimejusticeconference.com, or email the acting Conference Convenor, Juan Tauri (juan.tauri@qut.edu.au)

Rethinking Prisons Conference

Date: Vanderbilt University - May 3-5, 2013

The Vanderbilt Committee for Rethinking Prisons invites submissions of workshop presentations that interrogate and share knowledge on issues raised by the American prison system. The conference seeks to foster conversations between activists and scholars who share common concerns and bring different knowledge, methods, strategies and experience to the table.

The format will be discussion-based workshops. Panels of three will present their work for the first 30 minutes of the session. Their presentations will be followed by 45 minutes of discussion

Guidelines for Submission of an individual workshop presentation: Name, E-mail Address, Affiliation (or independent scholar, activist, educator, etc.), Title of workshop proposal, Abstract of 250-300 words; Equipment needs

Guidelines for a Panel Submission: Name of panel contact person, and of each panel member, Address of all panel members (including email), Affiliation (or independent scholar, activist, educator) for each person, Title of panel proposal, Abstract of 250-300 words for the panel as a whole, Titles of individual papers, Abstract of 250-300 words for each paper, Equipment needs

Note: Due to the length of sessions, we will only consider panels of no more than three persons. We will give preference to panels that include both scholarly and activist perspectives. If you would be willing to serve as a session chair, please indicate this on your submission form. Session chairs are responsible for timing presentations, and ensuring that each presenter gets her or his fair share of the available time. All submissions must be submitted electronically by December 1, 2012 to Lisa Guenther (lisa.guenther@vanderbilt.edu) and Geoff Adelsberg (geoffrey.adelsberg@vanderbilt.edu)

UPCOMING CONFERENCES (continued)

4th Global Conference - Experiencing Prison

Date: Sunday 12th May - Tuesday 14th May 2013; Prague, Czech Republic

Call for Presentations: This inter-disciplinary and multi-disciplinary conference marks the continuation of a project dedicated to the study of the experience of imprisonment. Imprisonment has become the dominant form of punishment in most societies across the world. It may occur prior to trial, or as a result of sentencing by a properly constituted court. Imprisonment without trial or due process occurs in various forms in most societies across the world, mostly sanctioned by the state itself, sometimes used as a political strategy by military, ideological, political or religious groups within a state, or by groups desirous of becoming a state.

We welcome contributions about the experience of incarceration across the entire range of perspectives, including legal, criminological, historical, fictional, phenomenological, biographical and autobiographical. Contributions are welcomed from former prisoners, detainees, incarcerated asylum seekers, former prisoners of war, political prisoners or those detained because of nationalist, religious or other convictions. All genres and media will be considered, in order to examine the widest possible range of representations, past and contemporary, which communicate the experience and nature of imprisonment. Contributions will be welcome from those who are involved with the delivery of incarceration, as well as those who seek to ameliorate incarceration by providing therapeutic drama, literacy, education, counseling, religious support and other services. Presentations will also be considered on any related theme.

What to send: 300 word abstracts should be submitted by Friday 4 30th November 2012. If an abstract is accepted for the conference, a full draft paper should be submitted by Friday 15th February 2013. 300 word abstracts should be submitted simultaneously to both Organising Chairs; abstracts may be in Word, WordPerfect, or RTF formats with the following information and in this order: a) author(s), b) affiliation, c) email address, d) title of abstract, e) body of abstract, f) up to 10 keywords. E-mails should be entitled: Prison 4 Abstract Submission.

Please use plain text (Times Roman 12) and abstain from using footnotes and any special formatting, characters or emphasis (such as bold, italics or underline). We acknowledge receipt and answer to all paper proposals submitted. If you do not receive a reply from us in a week you should assume we did not receive your proposal; it might be lost in cyberspace! We suggest, then, to look for an alternative electronic route or resend. Organising Chairs: Diana Medlicott: diana@inter-disciplinary.net; Rob Fisher: ep4@inter-disciplinary.net

The conference is part of the Probing the Boundaries programme of research projects. It aims to bring together people from different areas and interests to share ideas and explore various discussions which are innovative and exciting. All papers accepted for and presented at the conference will be eligible for publication in an ISBN eBook. Selected papers may be developed for publication in a themed hard copy volume(s).

UPCOMING CONFERENCES (continued)

Stockholm Criminology Symposium

Date: Stockholm, Sweden, June 10-12, 2013

Call for Papers: The Swedish National Council for Crime Prevention (Brå) hereby invites researchers, policy-makers and practitioners to the Stockholm Criminology Symposium 2013.

Participants are invited to submit papers within the following two themes:

1. *Saved from a Life of Crime. Evidence-Based Crime Prevention: Experiences from research, policy and practice on effective crime prevention interventions. Which crime-prevention interventions work for whom, and under what conditions? Why do they work and are they cost-effective? These are some of the most crucial questions that policy-makers and practitioners pose to the criminological community. While not all of these questions have been fully answered, researchers are certainly not at loss for words. A wealth of knowledge has been accumulated from applied research on the effects of intervention programs on the one hand, and from basic research on the development of criminality and risk and protective factors on the other. A broad range of results and experiences will be presented under the theme Saved from a Life of Crime. Evidence-Based Crime Prevention, in order to promote the further development of both policy and practice and also of the research field itself. The symposium welcomes submissions in the form of research papers and other documented experiences regarding, for example: Early-life intervention programs; Youth crime prevention; The prevention of reoffending; Systematic reviews of effects; Cost-benefit analysis; Developmental criminology; Crime in the life course; Risk and protective factors; Screening for delinquency; Longitudinal analyses of criminality; Applied theory in the field*

2. *Contemporary Criminology: Studies and practice from contemporary criminology and criminal policy. A traditional and necessary element of the Stockholm Criminology Symposium is to provide a large number of panels under the theme Contemporary Criminology. The theme offers an updated overview of the current state of the knowledge. We therefore welcome papers from all areas of criminology, crime policy and relevant practices. The participants and their contributions will be allocated to panels according to subject. The invitation is not restricted to any specific field, but might include subjects as diverse as: Crime trends; Feelings of safety; Fraud; Violence; Economic crime; Drug crime; Victimization; Penal law - construction, implementation and outcomes; Measuring the efficiency of the police and the justice system; Monitoring confidence in the police and the justice system; Police efforts to investigate and counteract crime; Prosecuting practices; Systems of sentencing; Development of correctional services; International measures to combat crime*

Paper submission: All abstracts must be submitted by March 1, 2013. Abstracts must be in English and are limited to 300 words. You will find guidelines for submissions on our website. There are a limited number of panel sessions. In the case of the number of received papers and panel proposals exceeding the time available for presentations, a committee will review the contributions submitted. The papers will be assigned to a panel with two or three other papers sharing a common theme or purpose (to the extent that this is possible). Participants are also welcome to suggest a full panel session, together with other researchers, policy-makers or practitioners. Please submit all abstracts to be included in the suggested panel session, together with a panel session title. You will find guidelines for submissions at: www.criminologysymposium.com. To present your paper, you must register as a session speaker in the symposium no later than May 2, 2013.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Arcadia University

Arcadia University Position/Rank: Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice, tenure-track Department of Anthropology, Sociology & Criminal Justice. The Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Criminal Justice invites applications for a tenure track appointment in criminal justice, beginning August 2013. Qualifications: Applicants should hold a Ph.D. in criminal justice/criminology, sociology or a closely related field, though ABDs will be considered. Applicants must have strong commitment to undergraduate teaching at both introductory and advanced levels, the ability to collaborate on pedagogical matters with colleagues, and the capability to provide University service. The criminal justice program has a strong commitment to teaching students to think critically about social justice and international issues, and to teach and work with culturally diverse populations. Applicants should be prepared to teach courses in crime and punishment (our introductory course), criminology theory and ideally at least one of the following areas: policing, juvenile justice, research methods.

Submit an Arcadia University Employment Application (available electronically at <http://www.arcadia.edu/jobs>), letter of application describing teaching philosophy and research interests, curriculum vita, teaching evaluation summaries and 3 letters of recommendation to: Arcadia University, Office of Human Resources, 450 S. Easton Road, Box: CJ, Glenside, PA 19038. Review of applications will begin October 25, 2012 and continue until position is filled. Arcadia University seeks candidates of diverse cultural backgrounds and abilities. As an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer, Arcadia University encourages members of underrepresented groups to apply. All offers of employment are conditional based upon successful completion of a background check.

Arkansas State University

The Department of Criminology, Sociology & Geography at Arkansas State University-Jonesboro invites applications for two (2) full time, tenure-track position(s) at the rank of Assistant Professor to start August 15, 2013. ASU is an Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action Employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. This position is housed on the Jonesboro Campus. Therefore, visit <https://jobs.astate.edu> for detailed information and to apply for position F00289 and/or F00220.

Position (1) F00289 requires a Ph.D. in Criminology or Criminal Justice by August 15, 2013 (the J.D. will not be considered a terminal degree); a demonstrated commitment to teaching and mentoring undergraduate and graduate students; a record of scholarly and professional activities; a readiness to participate in university and departmental service; and a willingness to contribute to distance learning courses.

Position (2) F00220 requires a Ph.D. in Criminology, Criminal Justice or a closely related field by August 15, 2013 (the J.D. will not be considered a terminal degree); a demonstrated commitment to teaching and mentoring undergraduate and graduate students; a record of scholarly and professional activities; a readiness to participate in university and departmental service; and a willingness to contribute to distance learning courses.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Arkansas State University (continued)

Applicants must be able to teach and conduct research in criminology and/or criminal justice. All areas within the discipline will be considered. Review of applications for this position will begin December 1, 2012.

A complete application includes the following: 1) letter of application describing teaching interests and research agenda; 2) curriculum vita; 3) contact information (name, title, telephone number, and e-mail address) for 4 references. ASU is committed to creating a productive workplace in which both persons and property are secure. To achieve that goal, background investigations are conducted on all final applicants recommended for employment.

Barton College

Barton College seeks candidates for a tenure track Assistant Professor prepared to teach 24 credits at all levels of Criminal Justice and Criminology, advise students, and engage in scholarship and service. Interests and competencies in research, criminal law and legal systems are helpful. The position requires flexibility in scheduling, including possible evening and weekend classes. Ph.D. in Criminal Justice and/or Criminology strongly preferred, but a doctoral degree in a closely related field with 30 hours of graduate coursework in Criminal Justice and Criminology may be considered. A Juris Doctorate degree is not considered sufficient nor a substitute for a Ph.D. in meeting this requirement. Evidence of successful teaching experience is expected. Research and professional experience in one or more criminal justice fields is desirable. The position is available August 2013.

Send complete curriculum vitae, unofficial transcripts, evidence of teaching experience, and three current letters of reference to Ms. Shannon Russell, Coordinator of Academic and Legal Affairs, Barton College, P.O. Box 5000, Wilson, NC 27893 (slodonnell@barton.edu.) To receive consideration, please forward applications by November 30, 2012. Position will remain open until filled. Barton College is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Boise State University

Boise State University invites interested applicants for one (1) open tenure-track positions with one (1) position at the rank of Assistant Professor and one (1) position at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor, beginning August 2013. While the area of specialization is open for both positions, see the preferred requirements for areas of particular interest to the Department. The successful applicant will become part of the Boise State University team as we build a Metropolitan Research University of Distinction, home to approximately 20,000 undergraduate and graduate students. The Department of Criminal Justice is a strong and established department with successful undergraduate Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts programs. Our approach to criminal justice education is both theoretical and applied. The successful applicant will be expected to engage in teaching, research, and service.

Assistant Professor Minimum Requirements: Ph.D. or advanced to ABD status in criminal justice or related field at time of employment; all degree requirements must be met by spring 2014.

Associate Professor Minimum Requirements: A Ph.D. in criminal justice or related field; Successful record of teaching, scholarship, and service commensurate with the rank within the Department

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Boise State University (continued)

Preferred Requirements (for both positions, regardless of rank): Primary and/or secondary specialization in one (or more) of the following areas: juvenile justice, victimization, corrections, policing, and biosocial criminology. Salary and Benefits: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

If interested in one of these positions, please submit a letter of application (indicating your interest and qualifications for the position), curriculum vita, three letters of recommendation, and copies of representative publications or similar evidence of scholarly potential/record to: Dr. Lisa Growette Bostaph; Search #SS-0013-23 (for Assistant Professor position) OR Search #SS-0011-23 (for Assistant or Associate position); Department of Criminal Justice, Boise State University, 1910 University Dr., Boise, ID 83725-1955. Review of applicants will begin November 16, 2012 and continue until finalists are identified. Applications received after that point will be considered if the position is not filled from the finalist pool. Boise State University is strongly committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity. The University actively encourages applications and nominations of women, persons of color, and members of otherwise underrepresented groups. EEO/AA Institution, Veterans preference.

Bridgewater State University

Bridgewater State University's Department of Criminal Justice invites applications for a full-time tenure-track position to begin Fall 2013. A large, growing, dynamic department with a strong social justice orientation in both theory and practice seeks faculty committed to teaching, mentoring, and research. We seek a candidate who is an active and productive scholar with a demonstrable, significant commitment to teaching. Applicants should be strongly committed to social justice, excellence in teaching and mentoring, and to working in a multicultural environment that fosters diversity. They should also have an ability to use technology effectively in teaching and learning, the ability to work collaboratively, evidence of scholarly activity, and a commitment to public higher education.

Required Minimum Qualifications: Prefer a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, but will consider candidates with a Ph.D. in Criminology, Sociology, Public Policy, Political Science or other closely related fields. A law degree is not considered an appropriate terminal degree for this position. Doctoral students who are ABD and who are nearing completion of the dissertation will also be considered.

Preferred Qualifications: The focus of this position is a progressive analytical view of the legal system, including the implications for fairness as well as racial, ethnic, gender and class equity. Examples of areas of preferred specialization include wrongful convictions, prosecutorial & judicial misconduct, plea bargaining, eyewitness identification, false confessions, felony disenfranchisement, juvenile prosecutions & sentencing, dynamics and effects of mandatory sentencing, life without parole, death penalty, or any other related specializations.

Special Instructions to Applicants: Applicants must submit at least one substantive writing sample, preferably from an area of research or teaching specialization.

Salary: Salary will be based on qualifications; TO APPLY: Interested applicants should apply online at <http://jobs.bridgew.edu> Bridgewater State University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer which actively seeks to increase the diversity of its workforce.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

City University New York (CUNY), John Jay College, Center on Race, Crime and Justice

John Jay College of Criminal Justice is seeking a highly qualified and dynamic Director for its Center on Race, Crime, and Justice. The Center Director will also have a faculty appointment at the Full Professor level in an appropriate department.

The Center on Race, Crime, and Justice, one of the twelve centers in the John Jay College Research Consortium, is a multifaceted, multidisciplinary entity for promoting scholarship on the critical issues at the intersection of race/ethnicity, crime, and justice. Its visiting scholars and affiliated faculty conduct funded research aimed at expanding the existing knowledge regarding the role of race/ethnicity in the creation, implementation and change of criminal justice policy nationally and internationally, in addition to examining such issues as the criminalization and policing of racial/ethnic groups. The goal of the Center's work is to provide rigorous scholarly evidence to inform decision making aimed at promoting equity in justice. Through community partnerships and agency collaborations, the Center has an impact on the world of practice. Research findings are disseminated through publications and through center-sponsored colloquia, workshops and special events designed to stimulate discussion that informs future research and fuels policy change.

The Director of the Center on Race, Crime, and Justice reports to the Dean for the Advancement of Research and will work collaboratively with other research center directors and the College division of Marketing and Development. The Director will provide strategic direction for the center, including articulating a vision, identifying and pursuing strategic opportunities, and positioning the center to have national and international influence within the multiple fields dedicated to the understanding of criminal, racial and social justice. He/she will establish and maintain relationships with external stakeholders, including community-based organizations, government agencies, academics, policymakers, media representatives, and others. Within the College, the Director will collaborate with academic departments, faculty members, and students. He/she will develop programs and manage projects and initiatives under the auspices of the Center, including staff supervision, fiscal oversight and budgeting, and public communications. The Director will interface with the Center's Advisory Board and will be responsible for raising private and public funding through grant activity as the primary source of financial support for the Center's operation. As a faculty member, the Director will also teach courses at the graduate and undergraduate level.

Qualifications: Ph.D. or other terminal degree required, discipline open. Recognized scholar and thought leader in the intersecting fields of race/ethnicity, crime, and justice. Scholarly record sufficient for tenure at the rank of Full Professor. Strong track record of substantial public and/or privately funded research as a principal investigator. Preference will be given to candidates with five or more years of experience managing a relevant not-for-profit Center or Institute.

Compensation: Salary is commensurate with experience and qualifications. How to Apply: Interested candidates should send a curriculum vitae, cover letter by the closing date to: Anthony Carpi, Interim Dean for the Advancement of Research, c/o Sandra Rutherford, John Jay College, 899 Tenth Avenue, Room 632T, New York, NY 10019 (srutherford@jjay.cuny.edu).

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

CUNY, John Jay Collect, Center on Race, Crime and Justice (continued)

In compliance with Equal Employment Opportunity policy, the College collects, for statistical purposes only, recruitment data on applicants' ethnicity, race, sex and veteran status. If you are not submitting your application through the automated CUNYFirst job board, please exercise your option to complete this Pre-Employment Identification survey through this link. You may omit your name: <http://www.surveygoldplus.com/s/A00478C7370541A5/48.htm>

Closing Date: December 8, 2012

Colorado Mesa University

Type of Appointment: Full-time, tenure-track position beginning in August, 2013.

Responsibilities: The primary responsibility of this position is teaching a combination of courses in the Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences - Criminal Justice major. The standard teaching load is 12 credit hours per semester. Additional responsibilities include student advising, service, and scholarly activities.

Education & Experience: Ph.D. in criminal justice, criminology, or related discipline by the time of appointment is required (ABDs will be considered and are encouraged to apply). A general academic emphasis in criminal justice is ideal for this position. Areas of specialization will be open for consideration. Preference will be given to candidates who demonstrate sound practical experience in the criminal justice field. Candidates should demonstrate excellence in undergraduate teaching and a commitment to scholarship and professional service. Experience with distance learning is also highly preferred. Colorado Mesa University is particularly interested in candidates who have experience working with students from diverse backgrounds and who have a demonstrated commitment to improving the levels of access and success for underrepresented students within higher education.

Application: Submit a cover letter describing qualifications and experience as they relate to the specific requirements and responsibilities of this position, current resume, a copy of transcripts for all degrees completed (official transcripts will be required upon hire), the names, phone numbers and e-mail addresses of three professional references, and the following completed forms:

- Applicant Authorization to permit Search Committee members to review candidate transcript
- Applicant Authorization and Release to Conduct Reference and Background Check form
- Background Investigation and Disclosure Authorization form
- Voluntary Affirmative Action form

Mail to: Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice Search Committee; Human Resources, LHH 237; Colorado Mesa University; 1100 North Avenue; Grand Junction, Colorado 81501-3122

Phone: 970 248-1820; Application Deadline: Open until filled. To ensure consideration, apply by December 1, 2012. Colorado Mesa University is committed to providing a safe and productive learning and living community. To achieve that goal, we conduct background investigations for all final applicants being considered for employment. Background investigations include reference checks, a criminal history record check, and when appropriate, a financial and/or motor vehicle history. Colorado Mesa University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer, committed to a culturally diverse faculty, staff and student body. Salary: Commensurate with education and experience.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Eastern Michigan University

The Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminology invites applications for a tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor to begin in Fall 2013. We are seeking a criminologist in the area of juvenile justice systems or juvenile justice policy whose work is informed by restorative justice. Candidates are expected to have a Ph.D. in Sociology, Criminology, Criminal Justice or a related discipline from an accredited university by August 2013, a research agenda, and some teaching experience. Preference will be given to candidates whose work includes community engagement, youth victimization and trauma recovery, and school violence/bullying. Required materials include a letter, curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching effectiveness (copies or summaries of student evaluations preferred or a statement of teaching philosophy), and the names and contact information for at least three references. Review of applications will begin October 10 and continue until the position is filled. Applications must be made online at <https://www.emujobs.com/postings/11195>

For more information contact Anders Linde-Laursen, Professor and Department Head at alindela@emich.edu. Eastern Michigan University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer; women and minority candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Fresno Pacific University

The Center for Peacemaking and Conflict Studies and the School of Humanities, Religion, and Social Sciences are looking for applicants with skills and interests consistent with undergraduate instruction at a liberal arts university. Depending upon area of specialization, the coordinator may teach undergraduate courses such as Criminal Justice, Theories of Criminology, Restorative Justice, and Victimology. Some instructional opportunities may arise at the graduate level. The coordinator will manage the degree completion program in Criminology and Restorative Justice Studies through Bakersfield and Visalia centers, and will teach in the evenings. The position requires mentoring and advising students in the program. The coordinator will recruit and supervise adjunct faculty in the program. Finally, the coordinator will contribute to Center activities while demonstrating commitment to departmental, university, and community service.

Position: Coordinator for Criminology and Restorative Justice Studies

Website: <http://www.fresno.edu>

Application Deadline: Open until filled

Employment Status: Full-time

Salary: Commensurate with experience

Keene State College

The Department of Sociology and Anthropology and Criminal Justice Studies Program at Keene State College invites applications for a tenure-track position in Criminal Justice Studies beginning August 2013. We seek applications from criminologists with teaching and research interests in one or more (preferred) of the following areas: comparative/international criminology, critical criminology, race and crime and victimology. We are committed to diversity and multiculturalism, and strongly encourage individuals to apply who have a desire to help the Colleges ongoing efforts to provide opportunities to help students become responsible global citizens.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Keene State College (continued)

The successful candidate is expected to teach courses in his/her area of specialization and introductory courses. The ability to teach both introductory and advanced criminology courses as well as a course in research methodology is required. Faculty members are also encouraged to teach courses developed for the college-wide Integrative Studies program.

Qualifications: A Ph.D. in Sociology/Criminology or Criminal Justice by August 1, 2013 is required. Candidates must also demonstrate a commitment to excellence in undergraduate teaching and have an active scholarship agenda that can engage undergraduate students. Salary at the rank of Assistant Professor is based on a Collective Bargaining Unit Agreement and is $61,720.

Application: Apply online at <https://jobs.usnh.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=52925>

Applicants should be prepared to upload the following documents when applying online:

- Letter of application
- Curriculum Vitae
- Three (3) letters of recommendation addressing the above qualifications.
- Evidence of scholarly work
- Teaching portfolio

Note: The three (3) letters of recommendation may be sent under separate cover directly to Keene State College, Office of Human Resource Management-FAC4, 229 Main Street, Keene NH 03435-1604 or via e-mail to cgreene@keene.edu.

Application Deadline: Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until position is filled or otherwise closed at the colleges discretion. For full consideration, please submit application materials by Dec. 1, 2012. Representatives of the College will be available at the American Society of Criminology meeting in Chicago IL, November 14-17, 2012 at the employment exchange. To learn more about Keene State College, visit: <http://www.keene.edu>, As an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer, Keene State College is engaged in an effort to build a community that reflects the diversity of society.

Mansfield University of Pennsylvania

Mansfield University of Pennsylvania invites applications for the Tenure Track position at Assistant or Associate Professor rank in Criminal Justice Administration beginning August, 2013. The successful candidate will teach court related courses & general Criminal Justice Administration courses (i.e., introductory & advanced) as needed within the program. Faculty members teach four courses (three preparations) each semester. A minimum of an ABD in Criminal Justice or Criminology is required; the doctoral degree must be completed within 18 months of hire. For a complete job description and application procedure visit: <http://mansfield.edu/hr/employment-opportunities/>

As an Equal Opportunity Employer, we are committed to providing a diverse working & learning environment & welcome applications from all qualified applicants. AA/EOE

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Marist College

The School of Social and Behavioral Sciences at Marist College invites applications for an Assistant or Associate Professor position for Criminal Justice, beginning preferably January 2013 or August 2013.

The criminal justice program offers the undergraduate degree, a dual degree in criminal justice and psychology, and a five-year program for a degree in criminal justice and an MPA from the School of Management. Noted for its strong theoretical foundation combined with sophisticated internship assignments, the program enjoys the respect of the broader criminal justice community. It is housed in the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences along with psychology, teacher certification and social work. Come join a newly expanded criminal justice department and have an impact on program development.

A strong theoretical and generalist background across the various fields of criminal justice is required for teaching a variety of courses, which may include criminology, international criminal justice, public/private security, risk analysis management, and criminal justice research methods. Scholarly activity, student advisement, and service to the College, students and the community are expected. The position may include opportunities to teach at the graduate level in the MPA program. The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Criminology or other related field. A degree exclusively in Law is not an appropriate qualification for this position. College level teaching experience is strongly preferred.

Marist is dedicated to helping students develop the intellect and character required for enlightened, ethical, and productive lives in the global community of the 21st Century. The College fulfills its mission by pursuing three ideals: excellence in education, the importance of community, and the principle of service. To learn more or to apply, please visit <http://jobs.marist.edu>. Only online applications are accepted. Marist College is strongly committed to the principle of diversity and is especially interested in receiving applications from members of ethnic and racial minority groups, women, persons with disabilities, and persons from other under-represented groups.

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION EMPLOYER

Messiah College

The Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Criminal Justice at Messiah College invites applications for a full-time, term-tenure track position Criminal Justice, with a strong emphasis in Restorative Justice. If hired, you will be joining a growing program whose faculty enjoy each other's company, are striving to be excellent teachers and scholars, and who love working with students. The Criminal Justice Program at Messiah College is designed to help prepare students to become professionals in the field of Criminal Justice. The Messiah College program encourages students to think deeply about causes of crime to better understand and promote the concept of responsible citizenship as they work toward creating an environment where justice and reconciliation can occur. Our faculty models the integration of Christian principles with criminal justice practice. More information about the program is available at http://www.messiah.edu/departments/socio/academics/criminal_justice/index.html

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Messiah College (continued)

Responsibilities: Teach core courses in Criminal Justice with the possibility of teaching courses in Sociology or Social Work. Teaching load will be determined based upon departmental need and the candidate's expertise and interests. Faculty members are also expected to maintain an active scholarly agenda, advise undergraduate students, and engage in institutional service.

Qualifications: Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Criminology or Sociology, but ABD's will be considered. Preference will be given to a candidate with a strong emphasis in Restorative Justice. Individuals with an MSW are encouraged to apply. Candidates are required to profess Christian faith, to commit to the mission of Messiah College, and to exhibit evidence of intercultural competencies. Preference will also be given to candidates who demonstrate excellence in teaching and scholarship and have experience in policing or courts. Starting Date for Position: Fall 2013

Compensation: Messiah College offers a strong benefits package in addition to salary and rank commensurate with qualifications and experience. Messiah College's strategic plan includes a commitment to community engagement in diverse settings and the development of intercultural competencies as well as a commitment to developing a comprehensive and integrated approach to global engagement. As such, Messiah College is fully committed to a culturally diverse faculty, staff and student body. Successful candidates will evidence similar commitments.

Applications and Nominations: Nominations, as well as applications, are welcome. The search committee will begin screening immediately and continue until a suitable candidate is identified. Applicants should submit a letter of application indicating areas of specialization and areas in which they are competent to teach, a copy of their curriculum vitae, three reference letters, and a complete Faculty Employment Application. Electronic submissions are encouraged, but not necessary. Please address all inquiries, applications, and nominations to: Dr. Kelly Ann Cheeseman; Chair, Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Criminal Justice; One College Avenue Suite 3057; Mechanicsburg, PA 17055; 717-796-1800, ext. 2103; kcheeseman@messiah.edu

Miami University

Criminal Justice (Hamilton Campus) Assistant Professor (tenure-track) to teach a variety of courses in policing and in at least one other area; advise students; maintain a program of scholarship; provide meaningful service. Require: Ph.D. in criminal justice or a closely related field (by date of appointment); evidence of expertise in policing through coursework, research, or experience in the field; evidence of teaching excellence; evidence of ability to maintain a program of high quality scholarship; willingness to apply one's disciplinary expertise in the field. Desire: Research methods, forensics, or cybersecurity as a secondary area of expertise; experience teaching in online or hybrid formats; willingness to teach in the Miami regional campuses' Bachelor of Integrative Studies degree program; evidence of impactful public service/scholarship. Seeking a colleague with an entrepreneurial spirit who is interested in contributing to the development of the growing program, and specifically to the implementation of the new degree. Position begins August 2013. To apply, send letter of application, curriculum vitae with personal contact information, three letters of recommendation, and evidence of teaching effectiveness to Dr. Alana Van Gundy, Criminal Justice Search Committee, Miami University Hamilton, 1601 University Blvd., Hamilton, OH 45011 or to: MUHsearch@muohio.edu.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Miami University (continued)

Screening of applications begins November 26, 2012 and will continue until the position is filled. Miami University is an EOE/AA employer with smoke-free campuses. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Right to Know – Consumer Information <http://www.miami.muohio.edu/about-miami/publications-and-policies/student-consumer-info/index.html>. Hard copy upon request.

Northeastern Illinois University

We seek candidates with abilities to teach in and provide leadership to a newly created Child Advocacy Studies (CAST) minor program. The person hired will be expected to work at least half-time in this program, and will also have an opportunity to regularly teach in their own area of expertise in a relevant related department. Qualified candidates will have either a JD or a Ph.D in the social sciences. (If a JD, preference will be given to those who also have an MSW or an MA in a social science or related field with extensive child advocacy experience); and three years direct practice and/or policy-related experience with youth and their family systems. Applicants should also have applied knowledge of child and adolescent development; demonstrated program leadership and community outreach skills; willingness and interest in advising students; and a commitment to teaching, scholarship, and community service in a culturally diverse university environment. Other desirable qualifications include experience with: teaching; work with diverse populations in the community; and knowledge of the procedures of forensic interviewing and the legal system in general. A passion for advocating for children and adolescents and having a holistic understanding of health issues will also be considered to be positive attributes. Please send application and reference letters to Dr. Cris Toffolo (c-toffolo@neiu.edu).

Norwich University

The School of Justice Studies and Sociology invites applications for a tenure-track position in criminal justice at the assistant professor level, with the appointment beginning in fall 2013. Criminal Justice is the largest major at this private college with a Corps of Cadets and civilians. Applicants must be able to teach law related courses: substantive criminal law, criminal procedure, evidence, civil liability, and law and society.

Requirements: An earned doctorate (Ph.D.) in Criminal Justice or Criminology (preferred) or related field (e.g., Sociology, Political Science) is required, as well as a J.D. (Juris Doctor) or significant background in law. All requirements for the doctoral degree must be completed at the time of appointment. Candidates must be eligible to work for any employer in the U.S. To apply, please send a cover letter, detailed curriculum vitae, names of three references, and a Norwich application form to Criminal Justice Faculty Search via e-mail to jobs@norwich.edu. The application deadline is November 19, 2012.

Norwich University is an Equal Opportunity Employer offering a comprehensive benefit package that includes medical, dental, group life and long term disability insurance, flexible-spending accounts for health and dependent care, retirement annuity plan and tuition scholarships for eligible employees and their family members.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Ohio University

Ohio University's Department of Sociology and Anthropology seeks a tenure-track Assistant Professor of Sociology with expertise in criminology. Areas of expertise should include criminal justice processes with emphasis on corrections, rehabilitation, and re-entry. Ideal candidates should have strong quantitative research training, will be expected to conduct theoretically-grounded empirical research, and will be committed to teaching excellence at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Candidates are expected to have the Ph.D. completed at the time of appointment. Ohio University is a Research Extensive institution located seventy-five miles southeast of Columbus, Ohio. Enrollment on the Athens Campus is approximately 19,500. Further information about Ohio University is available at the university's website: <http://www.ohio.edu>. To view the position and apply online, please use this link: <https://www.ohiouniversityjobs.com/postings/4226>. As part of the application process, candidates should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, publications or other samples of scholarly writing, statement of teaching philosophy, recent teaching evaluations (if available), and contact information for three professional references, who will receive an auto-generated email invitation to upload a recommendation using a provided unique link. Review of applications will begin October 15th, 2012 and continue until the position is filled. Questions concerning the position can be directed to: Bruce Hoffman, Search Committee Chair, at hoffmanb@ohio.edu. Please visit <http://www.ohio.edu/socanth> for additional information about the Sociology and Anthropology Department. Ohio University is committed to creating a respectful and inclusive educational and workplace environment. Ohio University is an equal access/equal opportunity and affirmative action employer with a strong commitment to building and maintaining a diverse workforce. Women, persons of color, persons with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.

Penn State Altoona

The Pennsylvania State University, Altoona College invites applications for a tenure-track position in Criminal Justice. Candidates should be able to teach a variety of courses on criminal justice and other system components, as well as topics within the candidate's specialty. The candidate will be responsible for teaching three courses per semester, conducting research, and providing service to the program, university, and community. The position requires a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or related field, and is a tenure-track appointment at the level of senior assistant or associate professor rank commensurate with qualifications beginning in Fall 2013. Applicants should present a record of evidence and potential effectiveness in teaching, research, and service. Candidates should have a strong commitment to undergraduate education, research, student recruitment and retention, and curricular development and assessment. Penn State Altoona offers a competitive salary and an attractive benefits package.

Applicants should send a letter of application establishing their qualifications; a current vita; a description of teaching philosophy and evidence of teaching effectiveness; a statement of research interests; transcripts (official transcripts required at the time of an interview); and three letters of reference. Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit their applications and accompanying materials electronically to edhdss@psu.edu in Word or PDF formats. Review of applications will begin as they are received and continue until the position is filled. Initial interviews will be conducted at the ASC meeting, November 13-16, 2012, in Chicago, but all applications will be considered.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Penn State Altoona (continued)

Non-electronic inquiries, applications, and additional materials should be sent to: Chair Search Committee for Criminal Justice, Penn State Altoona, Position A-37816, Elm Building, Box 3000 Ivyside Park, Altoona, PA16601-3760

For additional information about Penn State Altoona, please visit our web page at <http://www.altoona.psu.edu/>. Employment will require successful completion of background check(s) in accordance with University policies. Penn State is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity and the diversity of its workforce.

Penn State Harrisburg

The Criminal Justice Program at Penn State Harrisburg. Penn State Harrisburg, School of Public Affairs, invites applications for two (2) tenure-track Assistant Professors of Criminal Justice positions effective August 2013. The first position requires teaching an undergraduate senior seminar course in race, ethnicity, and crime; and, introductory and upper-level courses in at least one of the following areas: corrections, or research methods/statistics. The second position requires teaching introductory and upper-level courses in policing and an upper-level criminal justice ethics course as well as an opportunity to teach in a specialty area via already-existing upper-level undergraduate and graduate-level electives or by course development in those areas where courses do not already exist.

All criminal justice faculty are expected to teach in both the online and residential undergraduate (BS) and graduate (MACJ) programs in criminal justice. Applicants must provide evidence of/or potential for an active research agenda. A Ph.D. in criminal justice or related social science discipline is required. Highly qualified ABDs may be considered. The Juris Doctorate is not a substitute for the Ph.D. The Criminal Justice Program is part of the School of Public Affairs with additional undergraduate programs in Public Policy and Political Science. Additional graduate programs within the School include the Master's in Public Administration, the Master's in Health Administration, and a Ph.D. in Public Administration.

For information about Penn State Harrisburg visit our Web site at <http://www.hbg.psu.edu/>. For information about the School of Public Affairs and the Criminal Justice Program, visit: <http://php.scripts.psu.edu/dept/iit/cl/spa/index.php>.

Applicants for the position should forward a letter of application indicating interest for the position, curriculum vitae, and three letters of professional reference to: Harrisburg Criminal Justice Search Committee, c/o Mrs. Dorothy Guy, Director of Human Resources, Box CHE-37479, Penn State Harrisburg, 777 W. Harrisburg Pike, Middletown, PA 17057 or electronically to hbg-hr@lists.psu.edu. Application review will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Penn State is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity, and the diversity of its workforce.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Rowan University

The Department of Law and Justice Studies in the College of Humanities and Social Sciences at Rowan University is seeking applicants to fill a tenure-track position in Criminal Justice beginning September 1, 2013. Although the area(s) of specialization is open, preference will be given to candidates specializing in one or more of the following: Corrections, Criminal Justice Administration, Criminal Justice Statistics, Juvenile Justice, Criminal Justice Ethics, Organized Crime, Cyber Crime, and Homeland Security. Applicants must be willing to teach undergraduate, graduate, and online courses, produce scholarly research, and be committed to departmental and university service.

Qualifications: Candidates should have: 1. A Ph.D. in Criminal Justice required. Candidates with a Ph.D. in a closely associated field may be considered. ABD with firm date of completion may be considered. 2. Candidates must demonstrate college-level teaching effectiveness and a track record of scholarly research.

General Info: With a current enrollment of more than 11,000 students, Rowan University (www.rowan.edu) is a comprehensive public institution that values high-quality teaching, scholarship, and service. Research is supported by the university through travel support, internal grants, and load adjustment, although the candidate is expected to pursue external funding. Salary is competitive, and faculty positions fall under the State of New Jersey & AFT Collective Bargaining agreement. Rowan ranks in the top tier of universities in the region. Less than 20 miles southeast of Philadelphia, the area offers a variety of attractive urban, suburban, and rural options. Law and Justice Studies (www.rowan.edu/lawjustice) is a dynamic department with the highest student enrollment in the College of Humanities and Social Sciences. We offer both a B.A. in Law and Justice Studies and an M.A. in Criminal Justice, with an online M.A. in Criminal Justice scheduled to begin in Fall 2013. All positions are contingent upon budget appropriations. Rowan University values diversity, and is committed to equal opportunity.

Contact: Please send letter of application, complete vita, and three letters of recommendation by November 23 to: Dr. Allan Jiao, Search Committee, Co-Chair Department of Law and Justice Studies, Rowan University, 201 Mullica Hill Road, Glassboro, NJ 08028 e-mail: jjiao@rowan.edu; Salary: Competitive; Deadline: November 23, 2012

Saint Martin's University

Saint Martins University, an independent, coeducational university located in western Washington, invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track position as Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice beginning August 2013. Compensation will be based on experience and qualifications; it comes with a standard benefits package. The area of specialization is open; however, applicants must be able and willing to teach survey sections in core courses, including introduction to criminal justice, police and society, and corrections, at the main campus and nearby extended learning division campuses. Experience and/or ability to teach course in criminal justice research is a plus. The successful candidate will be both an active scholar and an excellent classroom instructor, able to teach a broad range of courses on a 4/4 schedule. A Ph.D. is required, as is a willingness to support the Catholic, Benedictine tradition of Saint Martins University.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

Saint Martin's University (continued)

Application process and deadline: Please send a letter of interest responding directly to the position description above, current c.v., graduate transcript(s) and complete contact information for 3 to 5 professional references to Laura Hoff, Executive Assistant to the Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Saint Martins University, 5000 Abbey Way SE, Lacey, WA 98503. Electronic submissions in .pdf format to CAS@stmartin.edu are preferred. Ms. Hoff may be reached by telephone at (360) 438-4564. Review of applications will begin November 1, 2012. The position will remain open until filled. Questions and inquiries may be directed to Dr. Robert C. Hauhart, Associate Professor and Chair, Department of Society and Social Justice, by email (rhauhart@stmartin.edu) or telephone at (360) 438-4525.

Shippensburg University

The Department of Criminal Justice seeks candidates for a tenure-track position in criminal justice at the assistant professor level, effective Fall 2013. Requirements: Area of interest is open, but we anticipate need in the areas of race and crime, law/courts, and crime policy. The applicant will be expected to teach both undergraduate and graduate classes and have potential for excellence in teaching and research. Candidates must have a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or related field from an accredited institution by effective date of employment; a J.D. degree alone is insufficient for this position. Application Procedure: Qualified applicants must forward a letter of interest, including a description of teaching, research and professional experiences and interests, a vitae and a complete set of undergraduate and graduate transcripts (unofficial for the application process; official transcripts prior to an on-campus interview) and complete contact information for at least three professional references, to be sent to: Search Committee, Department of Criminal Justice, 321, Shippen Hall, Shippensburg University, 1871 Old Main Drive, Shippensburg, PA 17257-2299

Review of applications will begin on Friday, November 30, 2012 and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants may be screened through a telephone interview as part of the search process. As part of the on-campus interview, a demonstration of teaching effectiveness and evidence of commitment to understanding diverse populations will be required as part of the successful on-campus interview process. Offers of employment are contingent upon successful completion of a criminal background check, proof of eligibility to work in the U.S., and sufficient course enrollment and budget allocations. Shippensburg University is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Individuals from traditionally underrepresented populations are encouraged to apply. Contact: Dr. Billy Henson; Email: bwhenson@ship.edu

SUNY Cortland

Appointment Date: August 2013; Salary: Competitive salary and excellent benefits package. Responsibilities: The successful candidate will be responsible for a 3-3 teaching load in undergraduate courses: Sociology of Law, Race, Gender and Crime, as well as Deviant Behavior, Criminology, Juvenile Delinquency, Corrections or other topics appropriate our BA program in Criminology. Additional responsibilities include advising approximately 25-30 undergraduate majors in Criminology and Sociology, maintaining an active professional, research and publication agenda, and contributing to the department, school, and college missions through active service on committees and/or collegial participation in campus governance and community life.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

SUNY Cortland (continued)

Required Qualifications: Ph.D. in Sociology or related field with a concentration in Criminology or Ph.D. in Criminology at time of appointment, teaching experience, and scholarly promise. Preferred Qualifications: Preference will be given to applicants with teaching experience beyond teaching assistantship, proof of excellence in the classroom, established research agenda, ability to teach Sociology of Law, and Race, Gender and Crime. The candidate's ability to contribute to department's quantitative methods curriculum and to the college's general education program will also be positive considerations.

Application Deadline: Review of application materials will begin November 1, 2012, and application materials will be accepted until the position is filled. Application Procedures: For consideration, please apply online at <https://jobs.cortland.edu> and follow the application instructions listed under "Special Instructions for Applying." SUNY Cortland is an AA/EEO/ADA employer. We have a strong commitment to the affirmation of diversity and have interdisciplinary degree programs in the areas of Multicultural Studies.

Texas A&M International University

The Department of Public Affairs and Social Research at Texas A&M International University has two Assistant Professors in Criminal Justice positions available beginning Spring 2013. Duties include teaching courses, performing research in criminal justice, and serving on departmental, University, and professional committees. Additional responsibilities include academic advising, scholarly activities, and service. Potential courses include Police Systems and Practices, Correctional Institutions and Criminal Justice Personnel Management.

Qualifications: Earned doctorate in Criminal Justice or related field. Ability to perform research and teaching in either policing or corrections. ABDs will be considered. Preferred Qualifications: Demonstrated commitment to teaching excellence at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Record of publication in peer-reviewed journals in the field. Position is open until filled. Salary is commensurate with qualifications. Completed employment application must include a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and a list of references. Interested, qualified candidates must apply via our online employment system, TAMIUWorks, at <https://employment.tamtu.edu>. Visit <http://www.tamtu.edu> for more information about our University. TAMIU is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. All TAMIU positions are security-sensitive. Applicants are subject to a criminal investigation, and employment is contingent on the results of the criminal history investigation.

University of Alabama

The Department of Criminal Justice at the University of Alabama invites applications for three (3) tenure-track positions at the rank of Assistant Professor in the following areas: Juvenile Delinquency, Judicial Process/Research Methods, and Cyber Crime/Cyber Security. ABD considered for all positions if graduation expected by May 2013. Applicants for the first position should specialize in Juvenile Delinquency/Juvenile Justice, Youth Violence, and/or Youth Interventions, and have earned a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Criminology, or a related academic discipline. Applicants for the second position should specialize in Judicial Process, Judicial Decision Making, Criminal Law, and/or Law and Society, and ideally have earned a J.D. and a

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

University of Alabama (continued)

Ph.D. in the Social Sciences. Applicants with only a J.D. will not be considered. This position is contingent upon funding. Applicants for the third position should specialize in Cyber Crime or Cyber Security (e.g., Computer Forensics, Computer Intrusions, Internet Fraud/Piracy, Identity Theft, etc.), and have earned a Ph.D. in a field related to Cyber Crime/Cyber Security. All applicants must demonstrate a coherent research program and the ability to publish in leading academic journals. The normal teaching load is two courses per semester. Applicants should be able to teach in their area of specialization and contribute to department needs in teaching core courses. Appointment/Start Date: August 2013.

Application Deadline: Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Application Process: To apply, to go <http://facultyjobs.ua.edu> and complete the online application. Attach a letter of application that addresses the candidate's research interests, teaching philosophy, and potential fit with the department; a curriculum vitae; and a sample publication or writing sample. Three references should send letters directly to Dr. Ida Johnson, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Alabama, Box 870320, Tuscaloosa AL 35487-0320. For more information contact Dr. Ida Johnson at ijohnson@bama.ua.edu.

University of Baltimore

Vacancy Number 2013-004; Open Until Filled; Salary: Competitive and commensurate with qualifications. The School of Criminal Justice in the College of Public Affairs invites applications for a tenure-track (Open Rank) Professor position with appointment beginning August 2013, pending final budgetary approval. This position will require traditional classroom teaching at both the undergraduate and graduate level and may also include teaching online courses.

The University of Baltimore, located in downtown Baltimore, is part of the University System of Maryland serving a diverse urban professional community. The School of Criminal Justice orients its academic priorities toward integration with the real world, capitalizing on geographic location in Baltimore, a real city that acts as an extended classroom and provides research opportunities. The School offers a B.S. and M.S. degree in Criminal Justice each certified by the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences and a B.S. degree in Forensic Studies. The School is currently engaged in expansion of its academic programs related to forensic studies (which utilizes a state-of-the-art forensics laboratory and maintains a strong partnership with state and local police departments and the state medical examiner's office.) A new graduate degree program in Forensic Science focusing on high technology crime is under curriculum review. We invite you to visit our web site for more information about the College of Public Affairs and the School of Criminal Justice at www.ubalt.edu/cpa. Candidates for this position must hold a Ph.D. in Criminology and/or Criminal Justice; have a record of scholarly activities; and clearly demonstrate the potential for quality university instruction and service to their profession and the university. Responsibilities for this position include teaching courses in both the B.S. and M.S. programs in Criminal Justice, and maintaining an active research and service agenda. Candidates should be prepared to teach a range of core criminal justice courses; however the area of specialization is open. The successful candidate may also have an opportunity for course development in their area of specialization and/or expertise. This position requires that the person hired be an active member of the faculty who contributes to program development, governance, and sustainability.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

University of Baltimore (continued)

We invite qualified applicants to submit a letter of interest, vita, and names and contact information of three references. Electronic forwarding is strongly preferred. Review of materials will continue until the search is completed. Please submit all materials directly to cjposition@ubalt.edu or Dr. Debra L. Stanley, Executive Director, School of Criminal Justice, University of Baltimore, 1420 North Charles, Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21201-5779. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply. The University of Baltimore is an equal opportunity/ Affirmative Action/ADA Compliant Employer & Title IX Institution.

University of Cincinnati

The School of Criminal Justice at the University of Cincinnati is seeking applications for an open rank faculty position, with appointments starting in August 2013 (although the start date is negotiable). Candidates should hold a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or a related discipline in the social or behavioral sciences. Those seeking appointment at the Associate or Full Professor-level must demonstrate records of scholarship and external funding commensurate with a doctoral degree granting program. Preference will be given to a senior scholar who has a national reputation for her/his scholarly contributions. The School offers specializations in the areas of crime prevention, policing, corrections, criminal justice, and criminology. Areas of specialization for the position are open. The University of Cincinnati is a Research I Institution that grants doctorates in 98 areas. The School of Criminal Justice grants the BS, MS, and Ph.D. degrees. The School also houses the Criminal Justice Research Center, the Institute for Crime Science and the Institute of Corrections Research. Further information about the University and the School is available at <http://www.criminaljustice.cech.uc.edu/> The city of Cincinnati and Greater Cincinnati metro area offers a range of multi-cultural activities and amenities in addition to attractive and affordable housing, high-quality schooling, and employment opportunities at world headquarters for several companies and numerous smaller nationally known firms. Interested persons must apply online. All required documents must be attached to the online application, including a list of references. Please direct any questions to: Bonnie S. Fisher, Ph.D. Search Committee Chair; Bonnie.Fisher@uc.edu Review of applications will begin on November 9, 2012 and will continue until the positions are filled. Positions are contingent on available funding. Women, minorities and veterans are encouraged to apply. To apply for position (212UC2429), please see www.jobsatuc.com The University of Cincinnati is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. UC is a smoke-free work environment.

University of Memphis

The University of Memphis Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice invites applications for two assistant professors. The desired candidates will hold the doctorate in criminology or a related social science. Exceptionally well-qualified candidates will be considered if completion of degree requirements is imminent. The department is looking for applicants with a range of qualifications. The successful applicants should have strong potential for research and effective teaching, engaged scholarship, and the ability to generate external support. Experience and interest in theory and research methods is desirable. However, a range of expertise will be considered, including areas of focus such as public policy, social justice, and strategic intervention. Salary is competitive, with excellent fringe benefits.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

University of Memphis (continued)

To apply, follow link at <http://workforum.memphis.edu> to upload a cover letter, CV, and list of at least three professional references. Additional information about the department is available at: <http://cjustice.memphis.edu>. Review of applications begins November 21st, 2012, and may continue until position is filled. The University of Memphis is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action University. Minorities and women are strongly urged to apply.

University of Nevada, Las Vegas

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas invites applications for 2 Assistant Professor positions in the Department of Criminal Justice. UNLV is a comprehensive research university of approximately 27,000 students and 2,800 faculty and staff dedicated to teaching, research, and service. The university has internationally recognized programs in hotel administration and creative writing; professional degrees in law, architecture, and dental medicine; and leading programs in fine arts, sciences and education. UNLV is located on a 332-acre main campus and two satellite campuses in dynamic Southern Nevada. For more information, visit us on-line at: <http://www.unlv.edu>.

Role of the Position: These are full-time, 9-month, tenure-track positions, to begin Fall 2013. Preference for the first position will be given to applicants with a background in Corrections or White Collar Crime (search number 13080). Preference for the second position will be given to applicants with a background in Juvenile Justice or Gang/Urban Violence (search number 13093). For both positions responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and graduate courses, developing and maintaining an active program of scholarly research, and participating in appropriate levels of service within the Department, College, University, and profession.

Qualifications: This position requires a Ph.D. in the social or behavioral sciences from an accredited college or university (J.D. degree alone is not sufficient). ABDs near completion will also be considered. A record of teaching experience and some evidence of teaching effectiveness and scholarly publications is preferred. Salary competitive with those at similarly situated institutions. Position is contingent upon funding.

Application Details: Submit a letter of interest, a detailed resume listing qualifications and experience, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of at least three professional references who may be contacted. Applicants should fully describe their qualifications and experience, with specific reference to each of the minimum and preferred qualifications because this is the information on which the initial review of materials will be based. Although this position will remain open until filled, review of candidates' materials will begin on November 15, 2012 and best consideration will be gained for materials submitted prior to that date. Materials should be addressed to Dr. William Souse, Search Committee Chair, and are to be submitted via on-line application at <https://hrsearch.unlv.edu>. There are two positions so please make sure you apply for the appropriate one. For assistance with UNLV's on-line applicant portal, contact UNLV Employment Services at (702) 895-2894 or hrsearch@unlv.edu. UNLV is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Educator and Employer Committed to Achieving Excellence Through Diversity.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

University of Tasmania

The Faculty of Arts is seeking to appoint an outstanding academic as Professor and Head, School of Social Sciences. The appointee will serve as Head of School for a five year period and provide academic and strategic leadership in all aspects of research, research training and teaching. The Faculty of Arts has recently undertaken a review of its structure, and from 2013, the Head of School will have an important role to play in the new three-School Faculty structure. The Head of School will have line-management responsibility for the academic staff of the School and will represent the School on Faculty and University committees and in external forums. The Head of School will provide advice to the Faculty Executive, Dean and Faculty Manager on the resource needs of the School in achieving School, Faculty and University goals, while budgetary control and management will be held centrally within the Faculty.

To be considered for this role, the appointee will have a demonstrated capacity for academic leadership and an outstanding record of research and teaching in one or more of the disciplinary areas which comprise the School of Social Sciences which include: Political Science, Public Policy, Police Studies, International Relations, Sociology, Criminology, Social Work, Journalism, Media and Communications.

The position can be located in either Hobart or Launceston with regular travel between UTAS campuses being required. The position is offered on a fixed-term basis until 31 December 2017 as a 60% FTE concurrent role; while contributing to the high quality research and teaching in an academic program of the School in the remaining 40% of the concurrent role. For further information about the position please contact Jandy Godfrey, Recruitment Specialist, University of Tasmania on 0408 039 833 or jandy.godfrey@utas.edu.au; Website: <http://www.utas.edu.au/> Application Deadline: November 16, 2012

University of West Florida (POSITION #110320 1.0 FTE)

The University of West Florida Department of Justice Studies invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice, a nine-month, tenure-track position. This position requires a commitment to collegiality, innovation in teaching and learning, scholarship and publication, professional development, and academic citizenship. Interest in sponsored research that opens avenues for our students is highly desirable. Evidence of a commitment to cultural diversity is expected. Starting date is August 2013. Salary is commensurate with experience and pending available funding. Summer teaching assignments are offered. Priority consideration will be given to applications received by December 3, 2012, but review will continue until the position is filled.

Qualifications for Position: Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or Criminology. Ph.D.s in related fields with documented specialization in Criminal Justice or Criminology will be considered. ABDs will be considered if requirements for the Ph.D. are completed by the starting date. The successful candidate must demonstrate a commitment to quality teaching, the ability to conduct research and publish, and the ability to contribute to our Master of Science in Criminal Justice program. Area of specialization is open, but preference will be given to candidates who can teach across the criminal justice core and possess strong backgrounds in theory and quantitative or qualitative research.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (continued)

University of West Florida (continued)

Application: Applicants must apply online at <https://jobs.uwf.edu>. Be prepared to attach your cover letter, vita, and name/contact information for three references in electronic format. References will be contacted to provide letters of recommendation. Position is open until filled contingent upon available funding. A Criminal background screening is required. The University of West Florida is an Equal Opportunity/Access/Affirmative Action Employer. Pursuant to provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act, any person requiring special accommodations to respond is requested to advise UWF by contacting ADA Compliance in the Office of Human Resources at 1-850-474-2694 (Voice) or 1-850-857-6114 (TTY). For more information about the department, please see our website at <http://uwf.edu/justice>.

Valdosta State University

Valdosta State University's Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminal Justice seeks applications for Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice. This is a ten-month, tenure-track position beginning August 1, 2013. A Ph.D. in Criminal Justice/Criminology or related field by appointment date is required. Prior teaching and field experience is preferred. Successful candidate will be responsible for teaching a wide range of courses in criminal justice to include traditional and online courses in the undergraduate and graduate programs as well as engage in research and scholarly and service activities. The program offers a BA and MS degree in Criminal Justice. Student enrollment in the program is growing with about 500 students currently. The program offers traditional classroom courses and online courses and is considered the fourth largest program on campus. Valdosta State University is a regional university serving 41 counties in South Georgia with a student enrollment of approximately 13,000. The Valdosta MSA has approximately 130,000 people, is located just north of the Florida state line on Interstate 75, is served by a regional airport, and is within a two-hour drive of Jacksonville and Tallahassee, Florida. For more information on the University visit <http://www.valdosta.edu>. For more information about the community visit <http://www.valdostachamber.com>.

Deadline for application is November 20, 2012. Candidates should apply online at <https://valdosta.peopleadmin.com/postings/976>. Paper applications will not be accepted. Valdosta State University is an Equal Opportunity educational institution and has a strong institutional commitment to diversity. In that spirit, we are particularly interested in receiving applications from a broad spectrum of people, including, but not limited to, minorities, and individuals with disabilities. Valdosta State University has a non-discrimination policy that includes sex, race, color, sexual orientation, religion, age, marital status, national origin, disability, and veteran status. For more information on the position contact Dr. Darrell Ross, Head, via email dross@valdosta.edu or phone 229-333-5943.

CALLING ALL CRIMINOLOGY AUTHORS...

New Directions in Critical Criminology

Routledge is on the lookout for fresh and innovative ideas and submissions for a new series, New Directions in Critical Criminology, edited by Walter S. DeKeseredy of University of Ontario Institute of Technology.

It is hoped that each book will provide a short original contribution to a major contemporary issue of central concern to critical criminologists around the world, consider new areas of empirical and theoretical inquiry and set out an agenda for progressive ways of thinking critically about crime, law, and social control.

If you would like to discuss your ideas or how to submit a proposal then please contact Walter S. DeKeseredy Walter.DeKeseredy@uoit.ca or the Commissioning Editor for Criminology at Routledge, Tom Sutton thomas.sutton@tandf.co.uk.

FORTHCOMING TITLES IN 2013

Green Cultural Criminology

Constructions of Environmental Harm, Consumerism, and Resistance to Ecocide

Avi Brisman, Eastern Kentucky University, USA and Nigel South, University of Essex, UK

This book moves towards articulating a theory of green cultural criminology and offers an invitation to cultural criminologists to adopt a green view of the consumption landscape and the growth of environmental harms.

December 2012

Hardback: 978-0-415-63073-3: £85.00 $145.00

Paperback: 978-0-415-63074-0: £23.99 $42.95

Intersectionality and Criminology

Gender, Race, Class and Crime

Hillary Potter, University of Colorado, USA

Intersectionality purports that people's lived experiences are not only affected by their gender identity but also factors such as race and class; this book offers a review of intersectionality theory in the study of crime and criminal justice.

January 2013

Hardback: 978-0-415-63439-7: £85.00 $145.00

Paperback: 978-0-415-63440-3: £23.99 $42.95

Policing and Media

Public Relations, Simulations and Communications

Murray Lee, University of Sydney, Australia and Alyce McGovern, University of New South Wales, Australia

This book offers a critical discussion of contemporary and emerging modes of mediatized police work and examines the relationship between policing, media and the public and the shifting techniques and technologies through which they communicate.

February 2013

Hardback: 978-0-415-63212-6: £85.00 $145.00

Paperback 978-0-415-63213-3: £23.99 $42.95

Realist Criminology

Roger Matthews, University of Kent, UK

As one of the pioneers of realist criminology, Roger Matthews presents a coherent overview of its development and continued relevance and offers a comprehensive critique of liberal and administrative criminology.

June 2012

Hardback: 978-0-415-52372-1: £85.00 $145.00

Paperback 978-0-415-52373-8: £23.99 $42.95

To order your titles visit:

www.routledge.com/criminology

Rural Criminology

Walter S. DeKeseredy, University of Ontario
Institute of Technology, Canada and Joseph
Donnermeyer, Ohio State University, USA

Written by two of the leading experts in the field,
Rural Criminology puts the study of rural crime and social control on the map and offers a concise critical introduction to this fast growing area of study.

August 2013

Hardback 978-0-415-63435-9: £85.00 $145.00

Paperback 978-0-415-63438-0: £23.99 $42.95

Theorizing Resistance

Music, Politics, and the Crimes of the Powerful
David Kauzlarich, Southern Illinois University
Edwardsville, USA

Theorizing Resistance examines the extent to which music constructions provide windows for opposition and resistance to forms of state crime and violence such as war, human rights abuses, oppression, and corruption.

June 2013

Hardback 978-0-415-54043-8: £85.00 $145.00

Paperback: 978-0-415-54045-2 £23.99 $42.95

Visit Routledge Criminology online

For news and updates, special deals, and information on new and forthcoming titles, follow us on Twitter @Routledge_Crim, and visit
www.routledge.com/criminology

ORDER YOUR BOOKS TODAY...

Qty	Title	ISBN	Price	Total

Your Details – Please use block capitals.

Name: _____

Email: _____

Organisation/School: _____

Address: _____

Zip/Postcode: _____ Country: _____

Telephone (including area code): _____

Sub-total
Postage
TOTAL

Use this form to pay by check, or go to www.routledge.com to place your order online.

Want to learn more about Routledge Sociology or Routledge Criminology? Contact your friendly neighborhood marketing team!

On Twitter:

www.twitter.com/routledge_socio www.twitter.com/routledge_crim

On our website:

www.routledge.com/sociology

www.routledge.com/criminology

IF YOU ARE IN THE UK/REST OF WORLD:

Return this form via post to:
Marketing Department, Routledge,
FREEPOST SN926, 2 Park Square, Milton Park,
Abingdon, Oxon, OX14 4BR, UK

or

Telephone: +44 (0) 1235 400524
Fax: +44 (0) 1235 400525
E-mail: tandf@bookpoint.co.uk
Online: www.routledge.com

Postage:

5% of total order
(£1 min charge, £10 max charge)
Next day delivery +£6.50*

*We only guarantee next day delivery for orders received before noon.

IF YOU ARE IN THE US/CANADA/LATIN AMERICA:

Return this form via mail to:
Routledge, 7625 Empire Drive
Florence, KY 41042, USA

or

Telephone: Toll Free 1-800-634-7064
(M-F: 8am-5:30pm EST)
Fax: Toll Free 1-800-634-4724
E-mail: orders@taylorandfrancis.com
Online: www.routledge.com

Postage:

US: $5.99 1st book;
$1.99 for each additional book
Canada: Ground: $7.99 1st book;
$1.99 for each additional book
Expedited: $15.99 1st book;
$1.99 for each additional book
Latin America: Airmail: $44.00 1st book;
$7.00 for each additional book
Surface: $17.00 1st book;
$2.99 for each additional book

Sales Tax/GST:

Residents of AZ, CA, CO, CT, FL, GA, IL, IN, KY, MA, MD, ME, MO, NJ, NY, PA, TN, TX, UT, VA
and CANADA please add local sales tax.

Canadian residents please add 5% GST.
We request all individual orders be pre-paid.

Please join

The Division of Critical Criminology

Thursday, November 15, 2012

Executive Meeting 3:30-4:20 pm

General Business Meeting 4:30-5:50 pm

Social 6:00-10:00-pm

All meetings will be held in the
Adams Room (6th Floor)